An Annual Publication by the Students

of

RICHLANDS HIGH SCHOOL

Richlands, Virginia

FOREWORD

To preserve the record of your school years, the priceless moments, the countless carefree days that have passed, and the varied experiences shared by you and your classmates has been the goal of the Tornado staff. It is our hope that this annual portrays the spirit of R.H.S.

True Confederates to the last!

Chaperones, Mrs. Allen and Mr. Cyphers talk to Mr. Dalton.

Waiting to go up in the Washington Monument.

Happiest moments on the trip were spent on the bus.

TRIP

Van Dyke, Shirley Breedlove, Linda Goodwin, Mr. Luchini, Bus Driver; Elizabeth Flanary Breedlove, Mr. Cyphers, Chaperone; Mrs. Allen, Chaperone; Mr. Colley, Assistant to Representative Pat Jennings; Priscilla Mullen, Ruth Stilwell, Betty Byrd Sanders, Brownie Boyd, Lenora Beavers, Carol Bailey, Bonnie Smith, and Jessie White.

Washington Trip

At 12:05 March 29, thirty-three Seniors and two chaperones left Richlands for Washington.

About noon Monday the bus breezed through Richmond and on to Williamsburg. In spite of a drenching rain, the eager seniors and chaperones toured Williamsburg and then Jamestown.

Tuesday morning, assisted by Representative Grady Dalton of Richlands, they toured Richmond. During an interview with Governor Almond, all of the seniors shook hands with him. ("Skip" Harris managed to get back in line for an extra hand shake.)

After leaving Richmond the students visited Mt. Vernon before arriving in Washington. Wednesday morning they toured the Capitol and several other places of interest. That afternoon they attended a Dress Parade at the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland; later they took a moonlight cruise down the Potomac River to an amusement park.

All day Thursday the happy seniors again toured Washington. That evening they attended a cinerama movie.

At 6:00 Friday morning an exhausted group boarded the bus for the long journey home, stopping only at Natural Bridge, and Lee's Tomb.

The travelers pulled into Richlands at midnight, a tired but happy group.

The most lasting impression will be the companionship enjoyed on the bus by the congenial group.

Students are entertained by "talent."

Sleep on the return trip home!

Washington! At last!

THE TORNADO STAFF

wishes to thank all those advertisers who have cooperated with us in the making of the 1959 edition of THE TORNADO possible. Without your support the staff could do nothing. Again

WE THANK YOU

"When the books close, and the last bell rings,

And carefree days are lost to mundane things —

When nostalgia strikes, and your memory wanes,

And you remember the faces but not the names —

Pick up your yearbook and leaf it through,

And remember the days so dear to you."

Dear Sue,

I am honored that you should want me to be the first one to write in your first annual. I just would like to wish you the best of everything always. Take it easy and enjoy your high school life but don't neglect your studies. Remember, life is what you make it - You can't control what happens, but you can control the effect it has on you. Good - or Bad -

Best of luck — Be good

Love,
Brownie Lee
